EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification:

On page 1, before line 1, the paragraph added in the preliminary amendment dated 8-23-01 has been changed to:

-- This is a divisional application of Application No. 09/199,344 filed November 25, 1998, now abandoned, which is a divisional application of Application No. 08/552,932, filed on November 3, 1995, now U.S. Patent No. 5,944,930. --

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art suggested that one would have performed the steps as defined in the specified sequence to form the tubular member wherein only a single heating step was used to form the same. More specifically, the prior art of record suggested the arrangement of the wound layers as evidenced by Japanese Patent 7-205274, however the reference suggested a fusion joint only locally (at the abutting of the ends of the film) and that this would have been followed by another heating step to fuse the assembly together. While the reference to Japanese Patent '429 suggested a single fusion step, there is no reason to exclude the initial local heating step as performed by Japanese Patent '274 in the operation. Additionally, it should be noted that Japanese Patent '429 relates to a pipe liner and not a tubular member of the type defined by Japanese Patent '274.

Regarding the rejection under 112, first paragraph, applicant's remarks have been found to be persuasive and it is believed that applicant was in fact in possession of the invention as is now claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
